The Workshop Session of the Satsuma City Council

The City Council of the City of Satsuma, Alabama, convened in a workshop session jointly with Satsuma City Board of Education at Central Office in said city at 6:30 P.M. on the 22nd day of July, 2013.

The following members were present: William Hamblin, Mike Butler, Tom Williams, Matt Dial and Bill Black

Absent: Mayor Murray

Also present: Vicki Miller, City Clerk.

Linda Robbins, President Satsuma Board of Education, welcomed the council to the meeting and then turned the meeting over to Dr. Walters, Superintendent of Satsuma City School System. Dr. Walters along with Jean McCutcheon and Linda Robbins presented a power point slide show of the "First Annual State of the School System". Jean McCutcheon reported that the school system would once again need the city's support by continuing the monthly appropriation and co-signing for a line of credit. She stated that once the school system has its yearly audit completed and reviewed by the bank, the city could be released from the line of credit.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:47.
