

Charles Randy Little was first elected to the Satsuma City Council in 2016. His departments include Public Services, Senior Services and Inspections. Randy has served as mayor pro tem and is recognized by the Alabama League of Municipalities as being a certified Municipal official.

Randy has been married to Diane Little since 1985 and they have two children. Charles Ryan Little and Hannah Lynn Little. They also have two adorable grandchildren. He is a graduate of Satsuma High School. He has lived in Satsuma his whole life.

Randy is the proud owner of Little's Auto Sales that has been in business for over 50 years in the city of Satsuma. His wife Diane is also the owner of A Little Shoppe. Randy is an active member and Deacon at First Baptist Church in Satsuma, AL. He loves his hometown of Satsuma, Alabama and wants to see it grow in a well-planned manner, allowing it to reach its fullest potential.